PACE Registered Paralegals®

NFPA's RP Listserv is dedicated to the PACE Registered Paralegals ®

RP's can use this listserv as a format for networking, to find answers to work projects, and share ideas with each other. There is a special link to sign up on NFPA's homepage. It is on the right hand side, under the 3-newsletter link. It will remain up for a limited time and then be relocated to the page where you sign up for other listservs offered by NFPA.

RP's - Don't Forget to Maintain Your RP Status = 12 CLE's Every 2 Years

If you missed renewing or have questions about your RP® status, please contact NFPA Headquarters. You can also check your wallet-sized RP® card. If you have questions on how many CLE's and the fee that you will owe to come current, please contact Ann Price, RP® at vpdp@paralegals.org. Check the NFPA website (www.paralegals.org) for a listing of interesting Classes!

IPA's Spring Education Conference – PACE Track

Earn your CLE's at the Spring Conference! Watch topics that are substantive to increase or update your specialty. Ethics is a must! If you are interested in information regarding PACE or studying for the exam this year, please don't hesitate to contact me with questions or for help with study materials. While we are not offering a session in the PACE Study Review Series, these materials are available for you to help you study for the exam.

WHAT'S NEW WITH PACE?

PACE® Study Manual and Handbook – Prices increased in 2009

Pricing is at the discretion of the publishing company.

- PACE® Study Manual, $77.40, plus shipping and handling. PACE® Handbook (application), $25.80.
- A Discount of 10% is available if you purchase both the Manual and Handbook together.

Proper Use of PACE Registration Marks

In response to many inquiries about the proper use of "RP" and "PACE Registered Paralegal" and the registration mark, NFPA has advised that you can use either RP® or PACE Registered Paralegal® and not both. Using both is not necessary. Both of these terms are registered as is the mark PACE® by itself, which the Patent and Trademark Office recently approved.
